Division C: Ages 13 to Adult

- The contest is open to any Custer County residents.
- One entry is allowed per participant.
- Base may be cardboard, wood, foam core or any sturdy material that will support the weight of the structure. The base may not exceed 12 inches square. The Custer Library will have 12in cake boards available for pick up!
- The structure does not have to be a house - it could be a barn, vehicle, or any type of 3-dimensional structure.
- The structure may be constructed from any edible material i.e. homemade gingerbread, purchased gingerbread, graham crackers, Rice Krispy treats, etc...
- Division A & B entrants may have adult assistance to assemble their structure. However, the entrant must individually perform all decorating of the structure.
- All decorations and supports of the structure must be edible materials -- no toothpicks, dowels, pipe cleaners, etc... However, it does not have to be candy -- cereal, nuts, pretzels, pasta, or any edible material may be used.
- All decorations must be attached to the structure or base -- no loose coconut, powdered sugar, candy sprinkles, etc...
- The Library is not responsible for any damage to entries on display.
- All entries will remain on display at the Custer Library through the New Year. They may be picked up between January 3 and 8. Any entries not picked up by January 8, will be thrown away.
